JNO. G. MORTON, BANKER.

The advantages of a bank account are numerous. It is not to business that we are called—they know all about it—but to satisfied men, wage earners and to women. There's safety—if the bank is a good one. There's convenience—the money always ready and on of reach of your own petty spending, too. It is easy to spend small sums when you have a large sum in your pocket.

AN EXCELLENT MARKSMAN.

Graves of Presidents.
Washington's tomb is a brick vault at Mt. Vernon.

Rutherford B. Hayes is buried at Fremont, O.

Chester A. Arthur is buried at Rural Cemetery, Albany.

James Madison rests on the old Madison estate near Montpelier, Hanover County, Va.

Franklin Pierce sleeps under a marble monument in the cemetery at Concord, N. H.

Martin Van Buren is buried in the family lot in the village cemetery at Kinderhook, N. Y.

James A. Garfield reposes under a towering monument in Lake View Cemetery at Cleveland, O.

Millard Fillmore's grave in Forest Lawn Cemetery is surrounded by a stately shaft of Scotch granite.

Thomas Jefferson lies under an obelisk in a little graveyard on the road from Charlottesville, Va., to Monticello.

James Monroe's body lies beneath a huge block of polished Virginia marble in Hollywood Cemetery, Richmond, Va.

John Tyler's vine-covered grave lies within a few feet of Monroe's, in Hollywood Cemetery, Richmond, Va.

Abraham Lincoln rests under a great pile of marble, granite and bronze in the Oak Ridge Cemetery at Springfield, Ill.

Zachary Taylor's ashes were interred at Cave Hill Cemetery, Louisville, Ky., and subsequently removed to Frankfort.

John Adams and his son, John Quincy Adams, lie buried in a granite vault beneath the Unitarian church at Quincy, Mass.

James Buchanan is buried at Woodward Hill Cemetery, Lancaster, Pa., a simple block of Italian marble forming the headstone.

Andrew Jackson reposes under a massive granite monument and a grove of magnolias in a corner of the Hermitage, near Nashville, Tenn.

William Henry Harrison sleeps at his home at North Bend, on the Ohio River, an unfenced mound over the family vault marking his grave.

Andrew Johnson lies on a cone-shaped eminence near Greenville, Tenn., on which his sons have erected a marble monument with a granite base.

Ulysses S. Grant will sleep, after April 27, in the magnificent temple on Riverside Heights, near which his remains lie in a temporary receptacle.

James K. Polk was buried in the private garden of the family homestead at Nashville, Tenn., where a limestone monument with Doric columns marked his resting place, but was recently removed and re-interred in the State Capitol grounds.

How a Bright Boy Measured a Tree.

He is not a boy in a book; he lives in our house. He eats oatmeal in large quantities, and tears his trousers, and goes through the holes of his boots, and loses his cap, and slams the doors, and chases the cat, just like any other boy. But he is remarkable; for he asks few questions and does much thinking. If he does not understand he whistles.

There was much whistling in our yard one summer. It seemed to be an all summer's performance.
Near the end of the season, however, our boy announced the height of our tall maple to be thirty-three feet. "Why, how do you know?" was the general question. "Measured it." "How?" "Foot rule and yardstick."

"You didn't climb that tall tree?" his mother asked anxiously.
"No; I just found the length of the shadow, and measured that."
"But the length of the shadow changes." "Yes; but twice a day the shadows are just as long as things are themselves.
I've been trying it all summer. I drove a stick into the ground, and when the shadow was just as long as the stick I knew the shadow of the tree would be just as long as the tree, and that's thirty-three feet." —Bright Jewels.

Thoughts of Spring Cured.

After having been confined to the house for eleven days and paying out $25 in doctor bills without benefit, Mr. Frank Dolson of Saute Ste. Marie, Mich., was cured by one bottle of Chamberlin's Pine Balm costing 25 cents and has not since been troubled with that complaint. For AGRICULTURAL ITEMS.

SHEEP ROT.

Dr. Saillie, a member of the Pasteur Institute of Algiers, has discovered a vaccine which will prevent sheep rot. He has made many experiments, which he declares to be conclusive. All of the vaccinated sheep get a very mild attack of the disease and recover.

STRAW.

Bright and clean straw is very useful on the farm and should not be wasted simply because it is cheap. Cattle will sometimes eat it as a relish, even when they can get better food, and it is never too plentiful if straw is used more than once as bedding. Straw will greatly assist in keeping the stables clean, and is really valuable considering the uses to which it can be applied.

NEW IDEA FOR POTATO PLANTING.

It is told in the New England Homestead that a Maine farmer planted his potatoes by using a corn drill to distribute the fertilizer after the furrow was made by a small plow, dropping the seed by hand and covering with the same plow by having the horse led on the left side of the row, the plowman holding the plow well over on the mold board and bearing a little to the right. The work was well done and a good crop harvested.

RENEWAL SYSTEM WITH THE PEACH.

It is reported in a bulletin from the Michigan station that a Michigan peach grower is successfully practicing a renewal system with the peach similar to that familiar to grape growers. He heads the young trees very low, and the head is spared till age begins to tell on it —say 4 or 5 years. Then the central stem is allowed to shoot up the old head is pruned away and a new one formed higher up.

RUN DOWN FARMS.

When one buys a run-down farm at a low price he must expect to expend quite a sum before the farm will begin to pay. In the hands of an intelligent farmer such a farm may be made first class in a few years, but the farmer who aims to make a poor farm pay by taking crops from it without an expenditure for plant food will only make himself and the land poorer.

MUTTON.

It is claimed that mutton can be produced at less cost than beef, and gives a larger profit. While our farmers are discussing the question of the profit from wool Canada is selling 150 choice mutton sheep in the United States every week, simply because our farmers depend more upon wool than upon the sheep. Our markets seldom have choice carcasses of mutton, and there is room for farmers to make use of the mutton, brands of sheep.

A NEW CORN PRODUCT.

In a bulletin upon the value of new corn product, Professor Patterson dwells on the value of the pith of the cornstalks in the arts and construction of war vessels. Experiment has proved its usefulness, and an extended employment of corn pith is considerably expected. The process for the extraction of the pith as well as the new corn product made from the residue of the stalks is already patented and three plants are in process of erection.

According to Professor Pattenson, field cured corn fodder often having the ear removed contains about one pound of pith to every 14 or 15 pounds of blades, husk and stalk. In the process of the extraction of the pith, the blades and husk are first removed and the stalks are cut up into small pieces.

After the extraction of the pith from the stalk what remains is ground up into meal, which is in general appearance resembles coarse bran. This ground material is termed the "new corn product."

This new product is in such shape that it can be easily mixed with any kind of ground grain or any of the byproduct cattle foods so common on the market.

TREES.

When buying trees do not depend on the catalogues to help you in selections, but learn, if possible, which varieties will thrive best in your section. When a tree is planted and a mistake made, it may be years before the error can be discovered, when there will be not only a loss of time but of fruit, while disease may appear or the trees prove unprofitable. The first steps in tree planting are the most important, and especially in the selection of varieties.

EGGS USEFUL.

According to The Medical Record, eggs are useful in the following applications: A mustard plaster made with the white of an egg will not leave a blister. A raw egg, taken immediately, will carry down a fish bone that cannot be extracted. The white skin that lines the shell is a useful application to a boil. White of egg beaten up with loaf sugar and lemon relieves hoarseness—teaspoonful taken every hour. An egg in the morning cup of coffee is a good tonic. A raw egg, with the yolk unbroken, in a glass of wine, is beneficial to the convalescent.

THE COWS.

Comfort for the cows always pays in an increased milk yield, and it is not certain but that the yield of milk would be actually increased if the cows that are now in a stall of stanchions could be put in box stalls.

THE COLLAR.

Upon the fitting of the collar depends much of the work done by the horse. While a collar may not cause sores, yet it may be very uncomfortable. The collar, and also the harness, should be made to fit the horse perfectly.

STRAW.

Bright and clean straw is very
useful on the farm and should not
be wasted simply because it is
as a relish, even when they can
plentiful if straw is used more than
once as bedding. Straw will
clean, and is really valuable
considering the uses to which it
can be applied.

THE RAILROAD STATION.

It is always pleasant to witness the meeting of friends who have been long separated, but travelling one sees exhibitions of simple, outspoken expressions of joy that have a somewhat humorous flavor.

For instance, a correspondent thus describes the meeting of a happy old couple with a long-absent daughter and her family at a rural railroad station.

THE RAZORBACK.

The razorback is a breed of hogs raised in the South before the war, and still to be found in some localities. He is built on the Swiss cottage style of architecture. His ears lay back with a devil-may-care air.

His tail has no curl, but hangs limp as a dishrag. The highest point of his corrugated back is 10 inches above the root of his tail. He ignores the slow, stately walk of the Berkshire, and

WEATHER
FORECAST.

Weather indications for Thursday, fair; slowly rising temperature.

Hopkins County's Mining Output and Tobacco Crop.

Total product of commercial mines in Hopkins County for 1896 (about one-fourth of the total output of the State). 777,182 Tons.

Money brought into Hopkins County by the sale of this product, more than $500,000.

The great bulk of this half million dollars cash was paid in wages to mine employees.

Total Coke production of the State, 27,165.47 Tons.

Hopkins County product (made at Erlington) 17,971.40 Tons.

Total value for 1896 of Hopkins County's Tobacco Crop, the leading product of our farms and that upon which a large proportion of our farmers depend almost wholly for their revenue, not more than $150,000.

The Hustler has our sympathy in its loss and inconvenience occasioned by the fire of Saturday night.

Gov. BRADLEY received the hearty approval of all good citizens in his firm refusal to interfere with the decisions of the courts that Jackson and Walling should hang.

A NEIGHBORLY editor of an exchange is asking THE BEE's prize history questions and offering his paper as a premium to the school boy or girl who will answer them most correctly.

THE BEE's special representative always sends the news of the Capital in the best style and his reports are the most fair and honest that go to any paper from that now most interesting place. Read "D.
K. N." specials to get the truth.

If Fitzsimmons will adhere to his announced decision to retire from the ring he will merit more applause from the people of this country than all the sluggers that ever knocked the wind out of each other under the gaze of congregated thugs.

It is pleasant to see the Log Cabin again at the head of the editorial columns of the Hartford Republican—and Editor Sam Anderson's name thereunder, having gained the coveted nomination for Circuit Clerk. Success to you, Brother Anderson.

No election of United States Senator yesterday. Hunter was two short of the necessary seventy votes and only one ballot was taken.
If prophecies are true this would indicate that Hunter is losing. It was said he would try to force continuous balloting.

We have not heard of a collection being taken for ex-Senator Jo, who for so long a time has had his hand in the public pocket—but not since the 4th of March. The deep sympathy expressed by his followers should take effect in the practical form of a handsome purse to soothe his bruised spirit.

RUMOR is still persistent in the statement that Gov. Bradley may resign his office and retire to private life, perhaps to a lucrative law practice in Cincinnati; but Kentucky Republicans trust that he will hold on at least until the Lieutenant Governor can take his place and complete the unfinished term.

HOPKINS COUNTY has been given another magisterial district by the Democratic Committee appointed by County Judge Hall. We now have seven magisterial districts and could have but one more if our population was ten times what it now is. It is just possible that seven will be a sufficient number until we grow more.

DR. CLARDY is pounding away at his bill to spend the public money for the beautifying of Hopkinsville by the erection of a public building in that town. There is small probability of such a bill getting through this session, but the doctor is pushing it as best he can. He has introduced some twenty or more bills, most of which are said to be war claims or private pensions.

THE Henderson Journal man lays sweet unction to his egotism thus:

"Sound Money" is a phrase that tickles pleasantly in the ear of the man who does not stop to think. The thoughtful man and student is a free silver man. Stick a pin in this. You'll find it true.

What a magnificent compliment to the great journalists of America, the most of whom, without regard to party, were opponents of the free silver craze in the last campaign, and wielded the greatest influence, which contributed to its defeat.

But then the Journal doesn't often venture an editorial and it must say something sometime.

THE new free silver daily the Dispatch, which has been so widely blown and boasted of throughout Kentucky, is still in the woods.
Its promoters have attempted to incorporate the company without having complied with the law which provides that at least half of the capital stock be taken in good faith. The Capital stock is placed at $100,000, but the promoters of the scheme have been unable to raise half the amount, though Mr. P. Watt Hardin and all the rest have pulled every wire hard.

As a certain consequence the Secretary of State has refused to permit articles of incorporation to be filed.

Spots that do not Change.
No man's temperament will be changed by the McKinley administration. The spendthrift will not be made economical. The lazy man will not be made thrifty. Men so disposed will have, under Republican rule, better opportunities to thrive and pay their debts; but energy and thrift may not be legislated into the thrifless man who has formed the habit of loafing in town when he should be working to make a living for his family. This man will continue in his old way, talk bad politics and howl at thriftless people when he should be raising crops; and then buy, beg or borrow the produce of the labor of another man—in perhaps another State —with which to feed the hungry mouths of his dependent household and clothe their nakedness.

It Ought to be Punished.

Of course no indictments were returned by the grand jury at Mayfield for the lynching of Stone, the killing of the young negro while the town was under patrol and the burning of property. The following expression of the Mayfield Mirror under the above headlines is indicative of the public opinion of the community, which denounces as soon as it should be denounced and recommends the condign punishment which is its due, but tolerates, palliates and encourages conceded murder:

The grand jury ought to have indicted somebody for the destruction of the property during the riot here just before Christmas on the night after the Stone lynching. Nearly everyone is very well reconciled to the lynching on account of the horrible offense for which Stone was lynched; and they are somewhat disposed to tolerate the unfortunate killing of the young negro while the town was under patrol; but it is the burning of the houses was an act in no way related to the lynching and it ought to be punished. It was the result for the most part of a quarrel between two individuals. One of them took advantage of the turbulent temper of the people to avenge a private grievance against an enemy. It is dangerous to the place and welfare of the community to pass by such a flagrant violation of the law as was the burning of the private property of the guilty or the innocent or a few individuals. There is no guessing who may suffer if it is not punished.

To Save the Country.
The Hopkins County farmer who thinks the country has gone to the "demnition howows" by the triumph of Republicanism, and who will never know what was done with Pearl Bryan's head, or where she lodged the two nights previous to her murder.

We have not heard of a collection being taken for ex-Senator Jo,
who for so long a time has had his
deep sympathy expressed by his
followers should take effect in the

spends a large portion of his time attending political meetings and launching statesmanlike ideas at his neighbors—and schemes to save the country—can best contribute to his country's salvation by industriously tilling his land and producing those things which he and his neighbor now buy of the grocer who has brought them from other counties and other states. Hopkins County is a wealthy county and a great consumer. Train-load after train-load of farm products, vegetables, fruits, hay, grain, meat, dairy products, are constantly shipped into the county for the use of its people.

Hopkins County's mining industries brought into her bounds in 1896, for coal shipped from the mines, more than a half million dollars, the bulk of which was paid in wages to the mine employees. This money is spent for which clothes and feeds the miners family.

The county's tobacco, which is the principal crop, and that which is almost wholly depended upon by a large number of farmers, was worth for 1896 not more and probably less than $50,000.

We regret to say that most of our county's men chew and smoke a great deal of tobacco, and many of the women use plenty of snuff; but they must be fed, even if the farmers of Indiana and elsewhere must raise the stuff and gain the profit.

The farms above the coal measures of the county, under proper management, grow crops that take special awards at great exhibitions.

Hopkins County's fertile acres are fully capable of producing all its people will consume. Why not do it?

POLITICAL NOTES.

After a casual and retrospective view of the happenings in political circles at the State capital during the past week one is certainly justifiable in originating the supposition that perhaps after all Mr. Franks looked a little farther ahead than he was generally given credit to.

THE Louisville Post has this to say about the Senator from Hopkins and Christian:

"Major S. R. Crumbaugh is a native of Logan county. He is a graduate of the United States Naval Academy, and was distinguished in his class for his high standing, especially in mathematics, mechanics, astronomy and engineering.
He was in the regular army for several years as Adjutant of the Second United States Infantry.
He takes great interest in literature, and is an omnivorous reader. Major Crumbaugh is perhaps as well posted on many subjects as any other man in the State. He had the advantage of a two years' study in Europe. His seat is contested in the Senate by Capt. C. D. Bell.

Major Crumbaugh asserts that he has no doubt whatever that he will win on the merits of his case.

DR. GARDNER seems to be in no hurry to displace Superintendent Lefler, of the Western Asylum. In fact Dr. Gardner is prepared to do his duty as appointee to the place but only in the most friendly attitude towards all concerned.

Speaker Blandford, of the House, is the best presiding officer that has occupied the chair in the lower house in many years. He is not only a good parliamentarian, but he is always alert and is as firm as a rock when the House is in tug-of-war.

The Populists of Hopkins county have nominated their portion of the fusion ticket as follows: County judge, Harvey R. Bourland; assessor, W. D. Crow; jailer, J. A.
Davenport; representative, Wm.
A. O'Bryan. The Democrats are yet to select their nominees on the joint ticket.—Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

Rev. S. E. Smith, the bright colored Republican, who was a delegate from the State-at-large to the St. Louis convention, is seeking the appointment to the Haytian mission, and no doubt has good prospects of success.

THEY HANGED.

Jackson and Walling End Their Depraved Lives at the Ropes End.

Newport, March 20.—At 11:30 this morning, Jackson and Walling mounted the scaffold. Ten minutes later the bolt was shot and both men dropped into eternity to die. It was the burning of the private property of the guilty or the innocent or a few individuals.
There is no guessing who may suffer if it is not punished.

Scrofula

Makes life misery to thousands of people. It manifests itself in many different ways, like goitre, swellings, running sores, boils, salt rheum and pimplies and other eruptions. Scarcely a man is wholly free from it, in some form. It clings tenaciously until the last vestige of scrofulous poison is eradicated by Hild's Sarsaparilla, the ful discharge of the duties of his station.

Upon which bond for a violation of its statutes, the Commonwealth, thereafter, appointed by the court, may sue in the name of the Commonwealth at their own costs.

Earlington Happenings.

News Notes — Personal Paragraphs and Other Doings at Home Worthy of Special Mention.

What did the little bird say?

Mrs. Ben Fields and little son, of Madisonville, visited relatives here Sunday.

An efficacious remedy for lung affections, throat disorders and all bronchial troubles is found in Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey. This medicine has made many invalids well and is justly ranked among the most important remedies of the age.

Misses Nannie Ashby and Pauline Davis spent Saturday and Sunday in Hanson.

Why suffer with Congs, Colds and Laryngitis when LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE will cure you in one day. Does not pronounce the ringing in the head like Sulphate of Quinine. Put up in tablets, convenient for taking. Guaranteed to cure or money refunded. Price 25 cents. For sale by Bernard Drug Store Earlington, Ky.

Mrs. Lemie Holt and Miss Bertha Beall were in Madisonville Monday shopping.

Bucklin's Arnica Salve.

The best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Scars, Ulcers, Salt Burns, Fever, Ticks, Chapped Hands, Chubblins, Corns and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures 95% or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents. For sale by St. Bernard Drug Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hughes, of Morganfield, visited the family of Mr. Wm. McCarley a few days last week.

"I escaped being a confined dyspeptic by taking Ayer's Pills in time." This is the experience of many. Ayer's Pills, whether as an after-dinner pill or as a remedy for liver complaint, indigestion, flatulence, water brash, and nausea are invaluable.

Mr. Jerrold A. Jouson has his law office located temporarily in Judge Farnsworth's office over the drug store.

Success is the reward of merit not of ambition. Popular appreciation is what is in the long run. For fifty years people have been using Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and to-day it is the blood-purifier most in favor with the public. Ayer's Sarsaparilla cures.

Morton's Bank at Madisonville is to have a new home. Will C. Morton is working on plans and the probabilities are that a very handsome and commodious building will be erected soon on the opposite side of Main Street and internally fronting their present building.

The people of Earlington are not expected to complain of hard times, since the advent of the traveler with his fortune-telling birds, who for several days kept a crowd around him spending their money for pink slips, blue slips and yellow slips with their "fortune" printed thereon.

Four-Legged Chicken.

Jesse Hankins on Saturday brought in a four-legged chick that died when it was about to be hatched. It is a peculiar freak.

Two of the legs seemed to be in the usual order. The other two grew where the wings should be, and if the chick had lived it would have been a four-legged bird without wings.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury.

As mercury will certainly destroy the sense of smell, and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they do is ten fold to the good you possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. It is taken internally. The cure is taken internally and the genuine. It is taken internally and the genuine. It is taken internally and the genuine.

Sold by Druggists, 75c.

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

COUNTY REDISTRICTED.

Work of the Democratic Committee Appointed by Judge Hall.

Messrs. R. C. Tapp, L. A. Pritchett and Ben Menser, report their work of redistricting the county as follows. One more magisterial district added. We now have seven and could have only one more if we had four times our present population.

DISTRICT NO. 1 — CURTAIN.

Beginning at the mouth of Drake's creek in Pond river; then up Drake's creek to the northeast corner of the Tribune land; then westwardly to the Tribune military line and the Morton's Gap public road to Salem church; then a straight line to the bridge on Flat creek on Madisonville and White Plains public road; then up said creek to its head near the Town's old place; then a straight line to where the Christian Privilege road crosses Richland creek near William Finley's; then to the Christian Privilege church; then with the Buttermilk road to the Christian county line near George Terry's; then eastwardly with the Christian county line to the mouth of west fork of Pond river; then down said river to the beginning. Population estimated 4,000.

MAGISTERIAL DISTRICT NO. 7 — KITCHEN.

Beginning at Mt. Zion church on the Jackson public road running thence westwardly to Friday's School House; then to the Madisonville and Henderson public road near Dock Burton's; then to John Mills on the Madisonville and Nebo road including his farm; then to the Rose creek public road at the bridge over Pond creek; then to the Christian Privilege public road where same crosses Richland creek, near William Finley's; then to the bridge on Flat creek on the Madisonville and White Plains public road; then up said creek to its head near the Town's old place; then a straight line to where the Christian Privilege road crosses Richland creek, near William Finley's; then to and including T. Y. Gordon's farm; then to Clear creek at Fagan's old mill site so as to include D. A. Stokes; then to the Madisonville and Earlington road at the southeast corner of J. P. Merrill's farm; then to the northeast corner of J. P. Merrill's farm; then north with said road and Main streets of Madisonville; and the Jackson public road to the beginning. Estimated population, 4,200.

Spring Opening.

Elsewhere will be found a handsome advertisement of J. T. Alexander's big stock of Dress Goods, Black Goods, Trimmings, Clothing, Shoes, Mattings, etc., etc.

Mr. Alexander has just returned from market and brings with him a splendid assortment of handsome goods which he is selling at prices competition cannot beat.

See his great stock.

Invitations Out.

We publish today the acceptance of "Bill Lampton" to "Jessie Philip's Wedding Bid" written in happy style from Washington, D. C., to the Louisville Evening Post. "Jess" and "Bill" have exchanged compliments in rhyme through the Post frequently of late and the correspondence has been quite voluminous.

It is now that the invitation has been published, Jess does not get out of himself and take "The path that leads up to the realms of the blest."

Whose you are, the woman and she does the rest."

The BEE moves the girls of Earlington that they cut the young man's company and treat him as mortgaged property until the mortgage shall be redeemed.

Your Intelligence.

Your intelligence is questioned by the druggist who tries to influence you to let him bottle anything for you when you ask for Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey.

He cannot put up anything like it—it is not to be had in bulk—it is to be had only in 25c, 50c and $1 bottles.

There is nothing "just as good" as Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey.

Avoid those substitutes with similar sounding names. When you buy Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey see that the bottle has never been opened and that it bears the picture and testimony of "Good Old Granny McTavish," and the name of the E. E. Sutherland Medicine company, Fountain Park, Paducah, Ky.

MAGISTERIAL DISTRICT NO. 4 — HANSON.

Beginning at the Bailey old place where the Madisonville and Henderson public road crosses the Webster county line, running with said road to P. P. Owen's, excluding Ed Allender place; then eastwardly excluding said Owen's farm to Mt. Zion church on the Jackson public road; eastwardly to the top of Betsie Ashby hill; then westwardly to Mt. Zion church on the Jackson public road and with Main street, of Madisonville, and the Madisonville and Earlington road to the southeast corner of J. P. Merrill's farm; then eastwardly to Grapewine church; then to Flat creek near B. L. Todd's including A. J. Sisk's farm; then down Flat creek to Pond river and with said river to the beginning. Population estimated, 3,600.

MAGISTERIAL DISTRICT NO. 5 — NEHO.

Beginning at the Bailey old place where the Madisonville and Henderson public road crosses the Webster county line; running with said county line to the mouth of Clear Creek, on Tradewater river; then up said river to a point opposite the South-east end of Stake Pond; then to and excluding Isaac M. Lynn's farm; then to the Wilson Warehouse Public road, near A. J. Quinn's; then with said road to the Brook's old place; then a straight line to the Madisonville and Dalton public road cross the Nebo and Charleston public road near Stake Pond; then with said road to Watson's bridge on Clear Creek; then up said creek to a point south of John Bosquet's East line of his home place; then Northwardly with said Bosquet's East line to his North-east corner; then a straight course to the Rose Creek public road at the bridge over Pond Creek; then a straight line to and excluding John Mill's farm on the Madisonville and Nebo public road; then a straight line to the Madisonville and Henderson public road at P. P. Owen's; then to the beginning including Ed Allender's place. Population estimated at 4,000.

MAGISTERIAL DISTRICT NO. 6 — CHARLESTON.

WORK OF THE CHURCH AND CONGREGATION.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

LESSON XIII, FIRST QUARTER, INTERNATIONAL SERIES, MARCH 28.

A Comprehensive Review of the Quarter's Lessons—Golden Text, Acts 26, 24—Commentary by the Rev. D. M. Stevens.

LESSON I.—Christ's Ascension (Acts 1:1-11). Golden Text—Luke xxiv, 51, "While He blessed them He was parted from them and went up into heaven." The golden text for today is, "The word of God grew and multiplied," describes the work of the Holy Spirit through the apostles after the ascension of Christ. We must keep before us the great fact that it was and still is the purpose of God to bless the world through Christ. (The Rev. Dr. J. C. H. 13, Jan. 18, 1881, xl, 12, 16); but, Israel having rejected and crucified their King, the kingdom is postponed until the King shall return (Luke xii, 11, 12; Acts III, 20, 21). In the meantime we live in "the mystery of the kingdom."

LESSON II.—The Holy Spirit Given (Acts II, 1-13). Golden Text—Acts II, 4, "They were all filled with the Holy Ghost." Although these disciples had been daily under the teaching of the Lord Jesus for several years yet they were not qualified to be His helpers. The Holy Spirit came to fill them with the Holy Spirit, for His aims could accomplish in and through them what the Lord required. No wisdom or power of man can accomplish the work of the Lord, but only the Spirit of the Lord (Zech. IV, 6). When the Spirit came, "the Spirit gave utterance" (Acts II, 4).

LESSON III.—A Mistletoe Convenant (Acts II, 22-47). Golden Text—Acts II, 39, "The promise is unto you and to your children and to all that are afar off." When the strangers of Jerusalem from all parts of the world heard these words, many spoke in all languages and declaimed the wonderful works of God, they were amazed, and some said that the disciples were full of wine. Peter, then standing forth, declared in the power of the Spirit the facts of the case, and from the lips of the apostles came the words, "the result that about 3,000 believed and were baptized, and the Lord continued to add daily those who were saved" (verses 41, 47).

LESSON IV.—The lame Man Healed (Acts III, 1-10). Golden Text—Acts III, 10, "To many though fallen in His name, hath He given strength." The disciples seem to have frequented the temple, probably for the purpose of teaching, even as Jesus had done (see chapter v, 20), and on this occasion the Lord through them gave health to a man over 40 years old who had never walked a step (verses 2 and chapter IV, 2).

LESSON V.—The Brokenness of Peter and John (Acts IV, 1-14). Golden Text—Acts IV, 12, "There is none other name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved." As the power of God is increased, so the devil's anger increases, and the apostles suffer imprisonment and threatening.

LESSON VI.—True and False Giving (Acts IV, 32, to V, 11). Golden Text—Acts V, 1-11. "Man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart." With such great power given to the apostles, the power of the nation of the Lord Jesus, that the grace of God was upon them all, and many sold their property and put all the proceeds in the common fund that none of the believers might lack anything; for them, as now most of us do, the Lord Jesus would probably cast out off the flesh and fill themselves destitute of temporal things. God's hatred of deceit is seen in His judgment of the Iarbs.

LESSON VII.—The Prison Opened (Acts V, 17-32). Golden Text—Acts V, 20, "We ought to obey God rather than men." Satan's rage increases, and again the apostles are imprisoned, but no walls or bolts or soldiers can hold them unless the Lord is willing that they should be held; so He sends an angel, who delivers them and opens the prison, and the apostles, touching the words of life, "When again arrested in the temple in the morning and brought before the council, Peter again preached Christ crucified and risen, and although beaten for it, when let go they continued daily to teach and preach Jesus Christ both in the temple and from house to house.

LESSON VIII.—The First Christian Martyr (Acts V, 18-31; VI, 54-60). Golden Text—Rev. II, 10, "He that faithful unto death, I will give him a crown of life." The power of the Holy Spirit is as now, to serve as a shield to us, and to protect us; if one is willing to serve whole heartedly in humble service, he will be led forth to greater things. The wisdom and spirit which they were not able to realize was not any gift of Stephen, but that of the Holy Spirit in the church, the word and spirit of God. Stephen's name, like Peter's, was chiefly quotations from or references to Scripture, and having given his testimony he went home to be with Jesus after His ascension.

LESSON IX.—The Disciples Dispersed (Acts VIII, 1-17). Golden Text—Acts 8, 4, "They that were scattered abroad went everywhere preaching the word." The last words of Christ He ascended were, "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature." Ye shall be witnesses unto Me unto the uttermost part of the earth" (Mark xvi, 15; Acts, 16), yet up to the time of our lesson the witnesses do not seem to have left Jerusalem.

LESSON X.—The Ethiopian Convert (Acts 8, 26-40). Golden Text—Acts VIII, 35, "He that has a spirit of prophecy in his mouth has nothing to do with me." The power of the Holy Spirit is as now, to begin at the same scriptural foundation as the rest of the world, and to teach the word of God. "Perchance the scattered abroad had gone to Ethiopia, but the Lord had His chosen ones even there, and will somehow reach them also."

LESSON XI.—Saul, the Persecutor Converted (Acts 9, 1-18). Golden Text—Acts 9, 15, "This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners." Things impossible with men are possible with God, and there is nothing too hard or wonderful for God (Luke xviii, 27; John xxxi, 17). The time came for this change to be made, and so it was. In His own way, by the power of God, the humbled him and brought him to Himself.

LESSON XII.—Christian Self Restraint (I Cor. ix, 19-27). Golden Text—I Cor. ix, 25, "For every man that striveth for the mastery of some thing, the same is overcome is the gift of God through the finished work of Christ, and no works or strivings of ours have any part in our redemption." Duty to God, and for the works which God prepares for us we shall be rewarded at the coming of Christ (Luke xiv, 14; Rev. xxii, 12; 11 John viii, 1; 1 Cor. III, 15). The special work of our lesson is the duty of self.

In France, hospitals for infectious diseases are furnished with telephones, so that the sick may converse with their friends without danger of contagion. It is not, however, a form of conversation that appeals attractively to the imagination.

Constipation
Causes fully half the sickness in the world. It retains the digested food too long in the bowels and produces biliousness, torpid liver, indigestion, flatulence, and all its consequences and all its results, easily and thoroughly. 22c. All drugs prepared by C. L. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass. The only pills to take with Hood's Barbituric.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic for the Week Beginning March 29 Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.
Topic—What Christian heroism is and does.

Christian heroism consists of principles and not of definite specific actions. What may be heroic at one time or in one place may not be at another time or in another place may be the mere commonplace action. In Christian America it is an honor and a privilege to confess Christ, to heathen China or India confession of Christ may require the noblest kind of heroism. To kneel in prayer at our bedside when surrounded by loved ones of our own Christian home is a matter of no thought so far as courage or boldness is concerned. To do the same in a room occupied by companions or schoolmates who are not Christians may demand a martyr spirit indeed.

The principles of Christian heroism are expressed by Christ when He says, "If any man will come after Me, let him deny himself, take up his cross daily and follow Me." The man who becomes a Christian hero must not only be the one who is honored, but the one who is honored by the world, by the world's opinion. He is the one who, in will, endures his life entirely to God and daily bears the cross of Jesus and follows Him.

Evangelist Rodgers is conducting a meeting at the General Baptist Church this week and attracting good crowds. Mr. Rodgers seems a man of considerable originality, and preaches in a forcible style not mixed with humor. The meeting will continue through the week and possibly longer.

Rev. R. V. Omer preached at the Christian church in this place Sunday and Sunday evening. It is said that he is one of two or three preachers of ability who are possibly available to fill the pulpit of that church which has been for some time vacant. The question of a future pastor will probably be decided by the officers this week.

The Temperance evening at the Christian Endeavor, Sunday, was made quite impressive by the trial of "Strong Drink" before a jury of Endeavorers. The testimony against this enemy of homes was strong and unequivocal and the death sentence was passed by the jury without leaving the room. There is no room for doubt as to the fate of Strong Drink if Endeavorers could pass the final sentence on his case.

Christian heroism includes cross bearing. "Take up his cross daily." Christ not only denied himself, but He also bore His own cross. So must it be with His disciples. Every life is crosses, but to carry them daily crosses we not only have to deny self, but to take up and carry these daily crosses that come to us in the home, in the schoolroom, in the office, in the workshop and even in the church itself.

Christian heroism includes following Jesus. "And follow Me." As the Alpine tourist places his foot in the footprints of his guide, so we are to follow in the footsteps of Christ. To do so the dead may be left to bury their dead, the farewells may be left unsaid, yet still Jesus is to be followed.

And what is the result of such self denial and cross bearing? It saves the life. Those that doubt themselves shall be exalted. They that lose their lives shall find them. The cross on earth will bring the crown in heaven. It will pay.

Christian heroism includes cross bearing. "Take up his cross daily." Christ not only denied himself, but He also bore His own cross. So must it be with His disciples. Every life is crosses, but to carry them daily crosses we not only have to deny self, but to take up and carry these daily crosses that come to us in the home, in the schoolroom, in the office, in the workshop and even in the church itself.

LESION NOTES.

Evangelist Rodgers is conducting a meeting at the General Baptist Church this week and attracting good crowds.

Mr. Rodgers seems a man of considerable originality, and preaches in a forcible style not mixed with humor. The meeting will continue through the week and possibly longer.

Rev. R. V. Omer preached at the Christian church in this place Sunday and Sunday evening. It is said that he is one of two or three preachers of ability who are possibly available to fill the pulpit of that church which has been for some time vacant. The question of a future pastor will probably be decided by the officers this week.

The Temperance evening at the Christian Endeavor, Sunday, was made quite impressive by the trial of "Strong Drink" before a jury of Endeavorers. The testimony against this enemy of homes was strong and unequivocal and the death sentence was passed by the jury without leaving the room. There is no room for doubt as to the fate of Strong Drink if Endeavorers could pass the final sentence on his case.
